

MISSISSIPPI STATE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

The Division of Radiological Health at the Mississippi State Department of Health is accepting applications for three Radiological Equipment Inspector III positions. The functional title of these positions is Health Physicist. Please follow the link to the Mississippi State Personnel Board website to see the minimum requirements for this position.

Radiological Inspectors will schedule, conduct, and document required inspections at industrial or medical setting. Must be able to obtain and maintain required state and federal certifications. Must be willing to learn licensing/registration and inspection of radioactive materials and non-healing arts X-ray. Must be willing to respond to suspected radiological events or accidents and perform investigations involving radioactive materials. Aptitude for higher level of science and math, ability to work in both industrial or professional medical settings, ability to travel within the state as needed, willingness to attend qualification courses as directed, understanding of the National Incident Management System, ability to navigate and understand complex state and federal regulations. Must be well-organized. Must be detail oriented. Must be able to work at all hours and weekends when required.

Preference will be given to applicants with a degree in a STEM related field. Preference will also be given to applicants with experience in Radioactive Materials or X-ray in medical or industrial settings, Biological Science, Chemistry, or Physics. Applicants must have a valid Mississippi Driver's License.

To apply send your resume to recruitment@msdh.ms.gov with Health Physicist in the subject line.

MSDH is an Equal Opportunity Employer.